GameTech International, Inc. Announces Successful Field Trial of New Explorer 2™ Hand Held Electronic Bingo Device

Reno, NV (December 11, 2011) – GameTech International, Inc., a leading supplier of electronic bingo equipment and video lottery terminals, today announced the successful field trial of its latest portable Wi-Fi Electronic Bingo Device: Explorer 2™.

The new Explorer 2™ was installed in the Clovis Bingo Hall in Clovis, California on the GameTech EDGE Bingo System™ in November, and, it has successfully passed 30 days of rigorous use with exceptional reviews. The Explorer 2™ is GameTech's newest portable Wi-Fi bingo device with enhanced 10" touch screen, 10+ hours of continuous battery life, and a new colorful design that is both attractive and rugged enough to withstand the bingo hall environment. The Explorer 2 supports the latest bingo games including Slingo Jokers Wild™ and interfaces exclusively with the GameTech EDGE Bingo System™.

“The new Explorer 2™ was developed and released in six months validating that GameTech continues to remain keenly focused on our core market – bingo,” commented Lorie Foerschler, Vice President of Product Management. “We continue to build momentum with new products and content that enhances the player experience and increases hall profitability.”
